

Soviet Secret Agents Growing Menace In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover has told Congress Soviet secret agents in the United States pose a growing menace.

Unless they are exposed, the FBI chief of 41 years said in a report, they eventually will serve as the nucleus of an extensive, clandestine espionage network.

Hoover said spying is heavily augmented by Soviet intelligence agents in virtually every Soviet group that enters the United States — newsmen, diplomats, businessmen, scientists, students and cultural exchange missions.

More Chinese Reds
What's more, Hoover predicted, "there is every likelihood that Chinese Communist intelligence activities in this country will increase in the next few years — particularly if Communist China is recognized by the United Nations and is thereby able to establish a diplomatic mission in this country."

Hoover delivered his latest report on the espionage threat in testimony before a House Appropriations subcommittee March 4. It was made public Monday night.

"In regard to the Communist bloc espionage attack against this country, there has been no letup whatsoever," he said. "Our government is about to allow them to establish consulates in many parts of the country which, of course, will make our work more difficult."

All Professionals
A growing problem, he said, "is the extent to which the Soviet intelligence services are dispatching undercover spies into the United States. They are well-trained, professional intelligence officers and usually bear assumed identities and are supplied with expertly fabricated documents and unlimited funds."

"Their detection among the more than 190 million people in this country is a counterintelligence problem of great magnitude," he said.

Asked whether advantages of cultural exchange would balance a possible intelligence disadvantage of having Soviet consulates around the country, Hoover replied:

"We have found in practically every cultural exchange group or student group that has come to this country, there is always a member of the EKGB, the intelligence service of the Russian government. They are called students, but some are 36, 37 or 38 years old."

Secret Mission Tries To Settle Dominican Rift

WASHINGTON (AP) — Operating in extraordinary secrecy, President Johnson sent a high-level mission to the Dominican Republic last weekend. Its evident three-fold objective: to end the civil war, bring dissident elements into a provisional coalition government and keep Communists from gaining control.

U.S. officials tried to keep the mission's presence in Santo Domingo a secret, and once the secret was out both the White House and the State Department remained tight-lipped about its purposes.

The mission is composed of McGeorge Bundy, a presidential assistant on national security affairs; Thomas C. Mann, undersecretary of state; Cyrus R. Vance, undersecretary of defense, and Jack H. Vaughn, assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs. They have been the President's chief advisers since the Dominican crisis erupted April 24.

But while Washington officials refuse to talk for publication about the mission, Latin-American diplomats are quite willing to discuss the matter. They say the President obviously was motivated by efforts to:

1. Bring the two major forces in the Dominican struggle, and representatives of all factions except Communists and extreme rightists, together in some plan to form a provisional government.
2. Emphasize, by the very dispatch of a mission, the importance he attaches to a peaceful, democratic solution of the Dominican civil war.
3. Try to safeguard the Organization of American States' role in dealing with the problems in this hemisphere and not allow the problem to go by default to the United Nations.

The Latin diplomats say Johnson seems determined that the OAS not become discredited as a vehicle for mediation and peace making in the Dominican Republic. The rebel forces, in contrast, appealed for United Nations action.

Latin Americans say it would be disastrous to give the U.N. Security Council, where the Soviet Union exercises veto power, any preferential role in solving problems in this hemisphere.

Subversive List Shrinks In U.S.
WASHINGTON (AP)—Of the 274 organizations listed as subversive by the attorney general's office in 1955, only 21 are still believed active.

The dwindling of the active list was disclosed by J. Walter Yeagley, an assistant attorney general, in testimony before a House subcommittee March 4. The testimony was made public Monday.

The list hasn't been changed since it was prepared as a guide for federal government hiring officials.

Among those still listed are the Communist party and the Ku Klux Klan.

Student Sit-In Group Ousted In East Lansing

EAST LANSING (AP) — Police had to carry out 70 chanting and singing Michigan State University students early today when they staged a sit-in at East Lansing City Hall to back demand for immediate passage of an open occupancy bill.

The students, led by the campus chapter of the NAACP and the SNCC, sat down in a corridor outside the council chamber while the council still was in session. They ignored a plea by Mayor Gordon Thomas to "act like rational people" and clear the building.

When the demonstrators refused to move by a 12:30 a.m. deadline, police hauled them out one by one, a job that took an hour.

Coeds, clutching their purses in front of them, were strapped to stretchers so they wouldn't fall off while being carried downstairs from the second floor. Male students were hauled out by four policemen each, two on the arms and two on the legs.

Ingham County Prosecutor Don Reisig asked coeds to climb on the stretchers so police wouldn't have to handle them. All refused.

Most sang while being removed—the favorite song was "We Shall Overcome." An original group of 24 East Lansing police were assisted by 12 Lansing police, six state police and six Ingham County sheriff's deputies. White youths outnumbered Negroes among the demonstrators and nearly half were coeds.

There was one blind youth clutching a white cane. No arrests were made and demonstrators were dumped on a lawn to the rear of the city hall. Some wanted to continue an all-night vigil but the demonstration broke up around 2:30 a.m. after a parade through downtown East Lansing.

Michigan Gets $750,000 For Disaster Relief

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson made $750,000 of federal disaster relief funds available to Michigan Monday for reconstruction of public property damaged by storms and tornadoes on Palm Sunday.

The White House said Gov. George Romney had asked for the money. Johnson previously had declared the state a major disaster area and thereby made it available for federal financial help.

Head-Start Plan Announced For Poor Children
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson announced today plans to give half a million poor children an educational "head start" this summer.

The program is designed to prepare the disadvantaged children so they can hold their own with others when formal schooling starts in the fall. It combines administration efforts in the education and antipoverty fields.

In a statement to a news conference, Johnson said the "head start" program will enroll 530,000 youngsters at 11,000 child development centers in 2,500 communities covering all 50 states. It will cost an estimated $112 million in federal and $16 million in local matching funds.

Rebel Band Small
Accompanying the OAS mission was Jack Hood Vaughn, an assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs who went to Santo Domingo with Bundy.

Gunfire echoed for nearly an hour Monday night north of the U.S.-patrolled corridor through the capital as junta forces waged a house-to-house battle against rebels outside the 20-block rebel area inside the U.S. lines.

Johnson Calls For Repeal Of Right-To-Work Laws

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson urged Congress today to repeal Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act and thus wipe out right-to-work laws in 19 states.

Johnson also asked Congress to extend minimum wage coverage to an additional 4.5 million workers. He did not recommend an increase in the present federal minimum of $1.25 an hour, a major goal of labor leaders.

"The question is not whether the minimum wage should be increased but when and by how much," Johnson said in his labor message to Congress.

"The Congress should consider carefully the effects of higher minimum wage rates on the incomes of those employed, and also on costs and prices, and on job opportunities — particularly for the flood of teen-agers now entering our labor force."

Overtime Curb Wanted
Johnson also recommended legislation to discourage overtime work in order to spread employment by boosting the overtime pay requirements from time and one-half to double time.

The message was not specific on the point, but administration sources had indicated in advance they expected a proposal to apply the double pay formula only after 48 hours of work, leaving time and one-half in effect between 40 and 48 hours.

In another recommendation, Johnson asked Congress to overhaul the federal-state unemployment insurance system and its present patchwork of varying jobless benefits.

"No major improvements have been made since its original enactment 30 years ago," Johnson said of the jobless aid program.

Work Week Cut Opposed
Johnson discouraged labor's drive to cut the present federal standard work week of 40 hours. "I do not think the time for change in the law has come," Johnson said.

But he left the door open for later action on both higher minimum wages and a reduced work week.

House To Vote On 544 Million School Aid Bill

LANSING (AP) — The Senate approved $147.7 million in state spending for 1965-66 Monday night—and did it with only two arguments.

Senators debated at length a minor expenditure for study of an osteopathic college and a proposed $100,000 study of higher education by the new State Board of Education before approving the former and rejecting the latter.

No Dissenters
Then, in a rapid-fire series of final votes on which not one dissent was recorded, it passed these appropriations bills:

— $101,661,959 for mental health.
— $20,431,547 for public health.
— $20,109,629 for corrections.

— $2.8 million for study and preliminary planning of capital outlay projects.

— $2 million for scholarships to college students.

— $673,460 for local airport development.

The figures were close to those recommended by Gov. George Romney in his budget message.

Debate Put Over
But that wasn't the case in the House, where a $544 million school aid bill moved without debate into position for final passage. That measure is nearly $80 million above Romney's suggestion. The House also moved a flock of other spending bills up to the final vote position.

The Senate put over until Wednesday preliminary debate on a school aid proposal which is $62 million less than the House measure.

The osteopath debate ran for almost an hour before the Senate voted 17-11 to permit the study of the proposed college.

The school is planned for Pontiac.

BILLS FILED UP
LANSING (AP)—A $544 million state school aid bill and a $76 million teachers retirement fund bill headed the list of 42 measures that passed preliminary debate in the House Monday.

In a 4½-hour session, the House moved 42 measures, many of them appropriations bills, into position for a final vote.

When the smoke from a Friday flurry of committee activity cleared Monday, House members found they had 267 bills on the active calendar and 17 more on the table, most of them fiscal reform bills.

Some 625 of the 1,009 bills introduced were left in committee for the next legislative session.

Measures moved to the final voting stage included bills to establish state meat inspection and milk pricing regulations, create a Saginaw-Bay State College, provide 75 per cent state funding for community mental health programs, and establish a turkey hunting season.

The only measures to stir up heated debate, however, were a bill to waive law school entrance requirements for legislators and to allow the holding of a driver's license as security before his appearance in court—allowing him to drive on a court permit.

Spy For Israel Hanged In Syria
DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Eliab Cohen, a 40-year-old Israeli who spied inside Syria for three years before he was caught, was hanged in a Damascus square early today.

The confessed spy's body was wrapped in a white sack from chest to feet and left dangling for the usual seven hours of public exhibition.

Cohen, a native of Egypt, told the tribunal which condemned him that he came to Syria from Argentina posing as a Lebanese immigrant after he had been trained in espionage by Israeli intelligence.

Bank Held Up In Grand Rapids
GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Two men reportedly wielding sawed-off shotguns threatened four employees at a Union Bank 1 Trust Co. branch here Monday afternoon and fled with approximately $40,000, state police said.

They fled in a stolen car which later was found abandoned about one mile south of the scene near the southern city limits.

Police were told that the men entered the branch about 1:15 p.m. when no customers were present. Branch Manager Donald Faber said one man jabbed a gun muzzle at his midsection and ordered him to "stand fast."

The other helped herd Faber and three women tellers into a lunchroom at the rear and made all lie on the floor. One gunman stood guard while the other removed currency from the vault and two safe boxes behind the teller cages, the victims said. Bank spokesmen told police the loot included about $10,000 in $1 bills.

Mayor Agusta Calls Pollution Enemy Of Cities

Water pollution is one of the most serious problems of many cities now and a threat to more cities in the future unless the problem is solved, Mayor William Agusta, Monroe, told an Escanaba service club luncheon on Monday noon.

"You are fortunate here, you have no pollution," said Mayor Agusta, who was in Escanaba in connection with Mayor's Exchange Day of Michigan Week. But at Monroe and the area the situation is becoming critical, Monroe, a community of about 23,000, is located about 25 miles from the Indiana border.

Expect Laws
"Lake Erie is dying from pollution. The Detroit River is the worst polluted waterway in the United States, and three paper mills are pouring pollution into the River Raisin," he said.

At nearby Sterling State Park there are signs warning people that they swim at their own risk because of pollution. The cost to Monroe of treating water to make it potable has tripled in the past 10 years.

"We can expect that the Federal government will soon pass laws on pollution," said Mayor Agusta. "It's something they've got to do. When it gets to the point when you cannot take your children to swim in one of the Great Lakes, there will have to be laws. The water does not belong to the industries — it belongs to the people."

Area To Expand
Other problems affecting cities are those related to annexation and the extension of sewer and water services to the townships, he continued.

Monroe now has 7,000 water customers in the city and 2,000 outside the city limits. Those outside the city pay double the rate of the resident customers, the maximum rate set by the state. Townships are also in need of sewer service.

"The cities whose people have financed the construction and maintenance of water and sewer systems should be justified in charging double or triple rates and making a profit," said the Monroe mayor.

Escanaba is also fortunate because it has the area in which to expand without having to seek annexation, he continued. Annexation is a sore spot with the townships. The state laws on annexation are antiquated and should be brought up to date, he said.

Receives Gifts
"People who live outside the limits of a city and want services from the city should be willing to be annexed and share in the tax load," Mayor Agusta said.

Monroe's city tax rate is $15.82 and its county-school rate is $33.21. (Escanaba city is $14.50 and the combined county-school in Escanaba $26.40.)

Robert Haack, Rotary President, conducted the meeting; there were greetings by John O'Brien, Kiwanis president; and the speaker was introduced by George Harvey, Escanaba city manager.

On behalf of local business and industry Donald Wertz presented a number of gifts to Mayor Agusta and Mrs. Agusta. She was guest of honor at a ladies' luncheon.

Homesick Welsh Citizen Tries To Travel In Crate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Brian Robson, 19, is a homesick Welsh traveler who tried to express himself home from Australia in a crate aboard a jet airliner.

Robson, who said he was trying to get to Britain as cheaply as possible, shipped himself c.o.d., billed as a computer.

After 92 hours — the last 14 spent stalled on what seemed an interminable stopover — the youth decided to emerge from the box and see where he was. "I wasn't too healthy," said Robson in the prison ward of County General Hospital, where Immigration Service authorities took him Sunday after smashing open the box in an airport warehouse.

He said three companions had nailed him into the crate in Melbourne and forwarded him to Sydney on an Ansett-Australian National Airlines plane. The crate measured 30 by 26 by 38 inches and was provided with special panels which were supposed to break when he hammered on them.

But they didn't. Instead, his hammer did, and he had to call for help. He got help, but now he wonders where it is going to get him.

He hopes authorities, now that he's been booked on federal charges as a stowaway and illegal entrant to the United States, will deport him home to Cardiff.

Permit Required For Installation Of Septic Tanks

Under sanitary code regulations for the Delta-Menominee District Health Dept. area, a permit is required before the installation of a new septic tank system or a major repair to an old system, Dr. Mary Cretens, director of the department, said today.

Permits may be obtained only from the Health Dept. in the Delta County Building. Fee is $1.

Dr. Cretens said the regulation applies to all home owners and contractors and that all new installations must meet requirements of the ordinance. She said information and advice on septic tank installation may be obtained from the Health Dept.

The Health Dept. will also assist on septic tank disposal problems, she said.

AT HOME in a pouch

THE KANGAROO, the largest of the Australian marsupials, roams the countryside in large bands. Although a full-grown kangaroo is nine feet high and weighs 200 pounds, the baby is only an inch long when it is born. It stays inside its mother's pouch until it is five or six months old, at which time it weighs several pounds and is able to shift for itself.

When the young kangaroo leaves its "home," it is ready to take its rightful place in the world. To help your children take their rightful place in the world, there is nothing better than life insurance. Let me tell you about Sun Life's Educational Policy which can so easily provide funds for their college education.

DETROIT (AP) — A unique three-place helicopter, built with the financial backing of some 6,200 residents of Northern Michigan's Menominee area, was named Monday as Michigan Week Product of the Year.

The craft, known as the F-28, was shown at a Michigan Week dinner attended by Gov. George Romney, Mayor Jerome Cavanagh of Detroit and more than 500 leaders of the business, labor and civic community at Cobo Hall.

"Some people may think that the Upper Peninsula was a strange place to develop a helicopter manufacturing firm, but don't forget that in an earlier day, many people regarded Detroit as a strange place in which to start the auto business," said Romney.

Three of the helicopters have been built as experimental models and have logged more than 700 hours flying time without incident.

Jack Christensen, 33-year-old president of the Enstrom Co. which is building the helicopters, said 30 firm orders have been received and that the first two craft will be delivered next September.

"We are delighted to get this award and it is a source of great satisfaction to all of us who have been working on this helicopter project since 1957," Christensen said.

He said that as of Monday, some 6,217 residents, virtually all of them from the Upper Peninsula, had invested $1.3 million in the helicopter firm's stock. A further public stock offering is due later in the year, he said.

Christensen and Erik Jones, his general manager, said their helicopter has many advantages over its four U.S. competing companies. He said these include ease of handling, a 115-miles-per-hour top speed—which he said was about 15 miles faster than any competitor in the small helicopter field—and ease of maintenance.

New Zealand firms have ordered seven of the craft, which sell for about $30 thousand. None has been used by U.S. military forces as yet but they have shown some interest in the craft, Christensen said.

The Enstrom helicopter won its top honors in finals competition with products from 14 other counties.

Wallace Machesney of Detroit, chairman of the state product and agricultural awards committee, said the finalists included Ford's Mustang car; the Comfort Air Conditioner built by Heat Control, Inc. of Jackson and Dow Chemical Co.'s new MAPP gas, which replaces acetylene.

The helicopter was the sixth annual winner of the Michigan Week award.

Auxiliary Plans For Poppy Sale

The annual sale of the "Poppy of Sacrifice" by the American Legion Post 82 and Auxiliary will be held in Escanaba on May 20, 21 and 22, it is announced by Mrs. Edna J. Ambeau, Poppy drive chairman.

Mrs. Ambeau directed attention to the Poppy as a reminder to the needs of the war's living victims—those who have made sacrifices in the nation's defense in three great conflicts.

The Poppy tells of a debt to those who made the supreme sacrifice, and to disabled veterans and the needy child who will receive assistance from the poppy program, the Auxiliary points out.

Poppy days come just ahead of Memorial Day. The Auxiliary is asking that everyone join in wearing poppies as an individual tribute to the nation's war dead—for the poppies themselves are made by disabled veterans to aid the worthy causes.

In hospitals, disabled veterans work at making poppies as a break from hospital routine. Through their work and that of the Auxiliary, the gift the poppies give includes the knowledge that to wear a poppy is to show lasting gratitude to the nation's defenders.

Highway Funds Called Short

EAST LANSING — Most of Michigan's highway and road revenue needs must be met by state and local governments and existing revenues appear inadequate, according to a researcher in the Michigan State University Bureau of Business and Economic Research.

Raymond C. Helwig reports: "Appropriations from general funds and property taxes have been relatively low in Michigan, due largely to a lack of effort on the part of county governments."

LIFE INSURANCE

FOR PEOPLE AGES 39 to 79
You can now apply by mail, direct to the Home Office, for a life insurance policy providing $1000 or $10000 guaranteed rate life insurance protection. Application and rates mailed to you without obligation. No agent will call. Tear out this ad and mail today with your name, address, age and year of birth to Great Lakes Insurance Co., Elgin, Ill. 60120. Policy licensed in Ill. Dept. 18E798P100

A re-appraisal of sources of revenue, says Helwig, is needed. Not only will a re-appraisal explore new sources of revenue, Helwig says, but it will also help ensure equitable and efficient allocation of existing sources.

General fund appropriations currently account for 10 per cent of the road revenues, according to Helwig. Another 2 per cent, he adds, is produced from local property taxes.

Other principal sources of revenue, Helwig says, include: gas taxes and registration fees, 41 per cent; bond proceeds, 26 per cent; federal funds, 26 per cent.

Construction and maintenance costs of highways, local roads and streets for the 1960-1980 period were estimated at $11 billion five years ago. It was estimated at that time that revenues would produce $8.1 billion, leaving an estimated deficit of $2.9 billion.

Road construction costs have increased since the estimates were made.

Theater Seeks Funds To Open

The Keweenaw Playhouse Guild has launched a fund-raising campaign to insure the opening of the Playhouse this summer. David Monroe, chairman, said invitations to membership have been sent to hundreds of Upper Peninsula theatergoers requesting their financial support for the 1965 season. As in previous years memberships are sponsor - $100, sustaining - $50, patron - $25, member - $10.

It is essential that a large number of memberships be secured very soon so that the pre-season commitments can be met, said Monroe. These financial obligations include Actor's Equity guarantee bond, script deposits, royalties, transportation for staff and cast, housing and feeding for 20-25 people during the two weeks of rehearsal prior to opening date, and pre-season advertising.

This amounts to $12,000

Psychologists Offered Funds

A scholarship for clinical psychologists to serve the Upper Peninsula has been established by the Mott Foundation in cooperation with the Upper Peninsula Child Guidance Clinic, Inc.

The scholarship provides $3,600 per year for two years to permit the student to obtain a master's degree in clinical psychology.

A stipulation of the scholarship is that the recipient must work in the Upper Peninsula in clinical psychology for a minimum of two years after completing the master's degree requirements.

Information regarding the scholarship has been sent to 49 universities in three states, according to Paul Kotila, Marquette, chairman of the Child Guidance Clinic's scholarship committee.

which must be raised through Guild memberships, program advertising and other fund-raising activities. The Fund-raising Committee is composed of Monroe, Mrs. Kenneth Alexander, Miss Jacqueline Jaaskelainen, Miss Ida Blum, Clarence Letcher, David Weston, Father Michael Hale, and Keith Baldwin.

The 1965 Keweenaw Playhouse is under direction of Marshall (Peter) Strader whose tentative schedule of plays includes "Mary Mary," "Come Blow Your Horn," "Never Too Late," "Twin Beds," "Life With Father," "Dracula," "Dark of the Moon," and "Auntie Mame." A complete schedule will be announced soon.

Strader of Sarasota, Fla., was selected to be the producer-director after evaluation of applicants for the position.

Since the Guild has decided to stay exclusively with dramatic productions this year rather than musicals, Strader's wide experience and considerable success in this field influenced the choice. He has been in professional theatre for 16 years, 12 of them as producer-director-designer for the Playhouse of Sarasota. As set-designer for the Keweenaw Playhouse at Calumet last summer, he is familiar with it.

Music Features Lemmer P.T.A. Closing Meeting

A capacity crowd enjoyed a sampling of the musical program of Lemmer School at the final PTA meeting held in the multi-purpose room last evening, May 17.

Opening the program were students of Mrs. White's kindergarten doing a folk dance, "Bow, Bow Belinda." Following, were first year string students of Mrs. George Embs, playing five familiar tunes. String instruments are begun in the fifth grade enabling the students to have two years of instruction before reaching Junior High.

Mrs. M. H. Garrard Jr., with pupils of Mrs. Roy Hebert and Miss Marie Jacobsen, gave a demonstration of the Music Primer used in the first grades, showing how note values and positions are taught. Even at this level the children are being taught how to transfer the printed page into song.

The fourth grade of Miss Helen Masterson presented a play and songs taken from Rossini's opera, "William Tell." Costumes and the music were delightful, and great suspense was created by the young actors until William Tell successfully shot the apple from his son's head.

A preview of the grade school honor concert to be given at the William W. Oliver Auditorium the evening of May 27, was presented by members of the honor chorus from Lemmer School. Singing three of their numbers, the fifth graders supplemented by a few fourth graders gave a taste of what is in store when the whole chorus made up of sixth graders from Junior High School and fifth graders from two other schools get together. The honor concert will also include numbers by the band and orchestra and another school chorus.

City Prepares For Election On Gas System Sale

The Escanaba City Council in preparation for the June referendum on the proposed sale of the municipal gas utility will adopt a resolution Thursday night designating time and place of polling on June 1.

The Council meeting will be in the City Hall at 8 p. m., with Mayor George Rusch presiding. By resolution the Council will designate the precincts, schedule opening of the polls at 7 a. m., and closing at 8 p. m., and appoint the election boards.

Previously the Council approved the proposition question for the sale of the gas utility as it will appear on the ballot; and approved the wording of a City Charter amendment providing for regulation of utility rates in Escanaba by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Ballot Question

The wording of the proposition regarding the sale of the gas system:

"Shall the City sell the municipally owned and operated gas production and gas distribution facilities to Michigan Consolidated Gas Company for the sum of $725,000 in cash, in accordance with an agreement dated and duly approved and ratified by the City Council on March 26, 1965, between the City of Escanaba, as seller, and Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, as purchaser?"

The voters will answer "yes" or "no" and a three-fifths or 60 per cent majority is required to carry.

The proposed charter amendment simply provides that jurisdiction over the establishment of gas rates in Escanaba be placed in the hands of the Michigan Public Service Commission. Should the gas utility be sold, the State rather than the City would have authority to control rates.

Budget Same

The charter amendment question will also be answered "yes" or "no" by the voters and a three-fifths majority is needed to approve.

The City Council at its Thursday night meeting will also open bids for the purchase of a compacting roller and for Southern yellow pine poles.

There will be public hearing and final passage of the 1965-66 budget, whose total is a few thousand dollars higher than last year. The budget provides for a 2 per cent pay boost for city employees.

There is no increase in the city tax rates ($14.50 per $1,000 assessed valuation) and utility rates are unchanged also.

The expenditure of $990 for the purchase of fireworks for the Fourth of July; appointment of a chairman for United Nations Day; and a request for the transfer of a Class C liquor license from Joseph A. Lauer, Harry's Bar, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rohl, Buchanan, Mich., are also to come before the Council.

Houghton Speed Limits Revised

LANSING (AP) — The Highway Department says a 25 mile an hour speed limit on U.S. 41 in Houghton will be raised to 30 miles except on one-way west-bound Sheldon Avenue. The department also announced a change to 30 m.p.h. on the highway from the east limit of Houghton to First Street and to 45 m.p.h. from First to Fourth Street, with no designated limit east of Fourth.

Cancer Crusade Fund At $4,108

The Delta County Cancer Crusade collections now total $4,108 and the drive is continuing to the end of this month, said Arthur Neiman, Cancer Society president, at a meeting of the unit Monday night.

The quota for the county is $7,500.

Neiman asked that all solicitors who have not done so to turn in their funds. Persons who have not been contacted by Crusade workers are asked to mail their contributions to Cancer Society, Arthur Neiman, First National Bank, Escanaba.

The Cancer Society at its meeting was informed by Mrs. Lee Miller, treasurer, that there is a need for funds at this time and cited expenditures of $320 for patient services last month. An increase in patient service costs is expected this month, she said.

Additional patients have been picked up to increase the burden on the patient services program, although four patients were lost through death within the past two weeks, it was reported.

The Cancer Society as part of its service pays for diagnostic x-rays, drugs, bandages, and homemaker services in some cases.

Executive Jet Uses Airport

A Beechcraft King Air prop jet plane chartered by Corporate Air Transport to the Chicago & North Western Railway and flown by Capt. Joe Leardi landed on the short (north-south) runway of Escanaba Airport Monday to bring a passenger here, reports Jan Thorin, airport manager.

The landing was made with no difficulty using about three-quarters of the runway and in takeoff the jet used only 1,400 feet of the 3,800 foot runway before breaking ground.

The executive type aircraft is not the first jet to use the local airport, which had handled military jets emergency landings and the F-27 Friendship jet of Abitibi Paper, a Fairchild on Fokker patents.

With feeder airlines like North Central going jet the sufficiency of airports to handle such planes comes under question, says Thorin.

Eaton Manufacturing Co. which has bought Marble Electric at Gladstone is buying an executive jet plane which is expected to use the local airport. Its longer runway is 5,000 feet.

A Champion of Champions track and field meet, approved by the Michigan High School Athletic Association, will be held at Newberry on Saturday, May 29. The meet will be an open affair, with competition in one class, and will be open to any Upper Peninsula athlete who has placed in a Conference Regional Upper Peninsula or State meet. The meet is the brainchild of Art Allen, Newberry track coach, who will serve as manager. He is hoping that it will develop into an annual climax to the U. P. season.

Bill Howes, who guided his Rudyard Bulldogs to three straight Upper Peninsula Class B championships, has resigned his position to become junior high principal at Rudyard. Also leaving Rudyard is football coach Roy Hamilton. An announcement on his successor hasn't been made but Gary Shanley, former outstanding Northern Michigan halfback from Petoskey, is expected to get the job.

Kingsford joined Escanaba and Holy Name in the championship circle in the newly formed Great Northern Conference by capturing top honors in the tennis meet held at Menominee over the weekend. The Flivvers won with 9½ points to 8¾ for Menominee, 7 each for Escanaba and Iron Mountain and 4 for Holy Name. Gene Kangas of Kingsford won the singles crown and Jerry Gignac-Charles Waller Menominee the doubles title.

Jim Maki of Newberry, sophomore at Soo Tech, snapped his own 880 yard record in the Michigan Tech invitational track meet last weekend with a 2:00.3 clocking. Speedster Dan Schram of Gladstone, a freshman at Michigan Tech, was second in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

The 22 second clocking in the 220 yard dash by Bob Van Kirk of Sault Ste. Marie in the Newberry regional track meet is one of the fastest in the state for that event this season. The best prep time for the furlong in Michigan is 21.7 by George Hoey of Flint Central. Eight other downstate sprinters have been under the 22 second mark.

As announced earlier, Gladstone's Tom Domres failed to see action in the University of Wisconsin's intrasquad football game at Madison Saturday. Domres is suffering from a knee injury sustained early in the spring practice sessions. He is a leading prospect to join the varsity fulltime next fall.

George Ihler, former star athlete at Marinette High, has signed a bonus contract with the Chicago Bears of the National Football League. After an outstanding prep career in football, basketball and track, Ihler played three years of varsity football for Western Michigan University. He was signed as a defensive flanker back and kicking specialist.

Rich McCarthy, Kingsford pole vault specialist who is the son of the Flivver track coach Dick McCarthy, is commanding the same attention through the Upper Peninsula as Escanaba's shot putters. McCarthy is topping the 12 foot mark with regularity and cleared 13 feet in a recent meet, only to have the bar topple off after he landed in the pit. The U. P. Class A-B record is 11 feet 11½ inches, set by Quentin Minkin of Ironwood in 1963.

Belinsky Posts First Victory; 5th For Koufax

By The Associated Press

Tony Taylor will never win the Fireman of the Year Award but the Philadelphia second baseman rates the Side Pocket Plaque today for saving Bo Belinsky's first National League victory.

Belinsky, the Phillies' pool-playing southpaw pitcher, topped the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 Monday night with a full-route five-hitter and a couple of vital eighth-inning assists from Taylor.

The little Cuban homered off Philadelphia nemesis Curt Simmons in the top of the eighth, giving Belinsky a 2-0 margin. Then, with one St. Louis run in and Bo on the ropes in the bottom of the inning, Taylor's perfect relay throw cut down the tying run at the plate.

Sandy Koufax, working longer and harder than Belinsky for his fifth 1965 victory, singled to start a four-run rally in the 11th inning that carried the Los Angeles Dodgers past Houston 5-3 in the only other National League game.

The American League-leading Chicago White Sox drubbed Kansas City 13-2; the Los Angeles Angels edged Minnesota 5-4 in 10 innings, and Baltimore downed the New York Yankees 9-2.

"I'll start going now," Belinsky, 1-2, said after completing his first start in six tries. "Sure, I've had trouble in the late innings but you have to be a little lucky when you get past the seventh."

Bo was working on a two-hit shutout when the Cardinals came alive with one out in the eighth. Pinch-hitter Phil Gagliano singled, took second on a passed ball and scored on Lou Brock's single. Curt Flood followed with a double to the right-field corner but Johnny Callison fired to Taylor, whose strike to catcher Gus Triandos nipped the speedy Brock at home.

Koufax, who allowed three hits and struck out 13 through the first 10 innings of a 1-1 duel with Houston's Bob Bruce, needed relief help from Bob Miller in the 11th after scoring the tie-breaking run in the top of the inning.

The Dodgers' ace singled with one out, moved around on Maury Wills' single and a walk to Wes Parker and scored as Ron Fairly beat out a hit off reliever Hal Woodeshick's leg. When second baseman Joe Morgan picked up the ball and threw wildly to first, Wills also scored.

Morgan then uncorked another wild throw on John Roseboro's grounder and two more runs crossed, giving the first-place Dodgers their winning margin.

It took Todd Butler just one night to re-establish himself as the top pitcher and slugger in the Escanaba Softball League.

In the season opener Monday night at Memorial Field, Butler, strong-armed one-hitter from the Mead No. 1 mound as the Paper Makers crushed Hamms-Merchants, last year's league champion, by a 10-0 margin.

Butler contributed a grand slam homerun in the sixth inning in which Mead exploded for nine runs on eight hits. The Mead artist claimed 10 strikeouts. His no-hit bid was stymied by Don Martineau who stroked a single in the fifth.

Jim Almonroeder had three hits in three trips while Jim Pinar and Ron Able swatted two each for Mead. Bob Coriveau granted a dozen hits and fanned two for Hamms.

In the front game of the double bill last night Flat Rock put a run across in the last of the seventh to edge Bero Motors, 4-3.

The pitcher was the star of this game as well. Bill Smith slammed the hit to the center field fence that drove in Ron Smith, on with a walk, with the deciding tally.

Smith flipped a four hitter for Flat Rock, whose runs came in the first, second and sixth innings prior to the finale. Jim Beauchamp's triple in the sixth pushed the tying run home.

Dale Bitner handled mound chores for Bero's and allowed six hits. Bero's scored two runs in the first and one in the fifth.

Hunt Blames Card Runner

NEW YORK (AP) — Ron Hunt doesn't exactly say so, but the New York Mets' hard luck second baseman feels Phil Gagliano of St. Louis should shoulder the blame for a baseline collision that has shelved Hunt for most — if not all — of the 1965 baseball season.

"I guess it was unintentional," Hunt said at a bedside news conference at Roosevelt Hospital Monday. "But I don't understand how he (Gagliano) could say he didn't see me."

The St. Louis base runner belted Hunt while Ron was attempting to field a ground ball in the fifth inning of a game here last Tuesday. The All-Star second baseman suffered a severe shoulder separation and underwent surgery the next day. He will be out for at least three months—possibly for the year.

Gagliano continued to insist he was blameless. The young Cardinal infielder, who was ruled out for interference on the bases-loaded play, said in St. Louis Monday:

"It was entirely unintentional. I was just trying to beat the ball and I thought I could. I didn't see him until he hit me."

Hunt disagreed.

"My play was to go get the ball," he said. "He knows the rule. It was his job to stop and avoid hitting me."

"I had to get in front of him and get the ball. If I didn't charge the ball, if I'd waited for him to pass in front of me, I wouldn't have had a play anywhere, at second, at home or even at first."

Yanks 10 Games Behind

White Sox In Same Place This Season

By The Associated Press

A year ago today, the New York Yankees were 10 percentage points behind the Chicago White Sox. Today, the Yankees are 10 games behind.

The White Sox are in the same position they were in 1964 — first place in the American League. But the Yankees are nowhere near the second spot they held down at that time. They are in eighth place.

Chicago continued its torrid play by clobbering Kansas City 13-2 Monday night for its eighth consecutive victory. The Yankees, on the other hand, continued along their floundering way, dropping a 9-2 decision to Baltimore.

The pitchers for the Yankees and White Sox more or less typified the teams' 1965 fortunes.

New York's Whitey Ford lasted only four innings against the Orioles en route to his fourth straight defeat. At this time in 1964, the 36-year-old left-hander had started eight games, completing five for a 4-1 record and a 1.66 earned-run average.

Ford currently has completed only one of eight starts and owns a 2-5 mark with a 6.07 ERA.

Gary Peters, however, is slightly ahead of his pace of a year ago after giving the distance for the first time in seven starts. The victory against the Athletics brought his record to 4-2 and 3.60.

In 1964, the 28-year-old southpaw had not completed a game in seven starts while posting a 3-2 mark and a 3.73 ERA.

The Yankees wound up winning their fifth straight pennant last season, and it certainly is too early to say they won't make it a sixth time this year. Ten percentage points, though, can be wiped out in one night. It takes a little longer to erase 10 games.

In the only other AL game Monday night, Los Angeles edged Minnesota 5-4 in 10 innings.

Philadelphia nipped St. Louis 2-1 and Los Angeles trimmed Houston 5-3 in 11 innings in the only National League action.

Peters scattered eight hits in handing the Athletics their first loss after two triumphs under their new manager, Haywood Sullivan.

Floyd Robinson, Pete Ward and Ken Berry led the White

Sox 16-hit attack, each slugging a home run. Robinson and Berry also singled in a run each in the six-run seventh inning while Bill Skowron knocked in a pair with a single.

Milt Pappas limited the Yankees to five hits, one of them Joe Pepitone's two-run single in the fifth inning.

Bob Johnson rapped four Baltimore hits, driving in two runs while John Orsino and Jack Brandt each collected three hits. Orsino batted in three runs, his two-run single in the fifth knocking Ford out of the game.

The Angels edged Minnesota in the 10th inning when Albie Pearson led off with a double against Johnny Klippstein, advanced to third on a sacrifice and scooted home as Bob Rodgers blooped a single to center field off Mel Nelson.

Los Angeles had taken a 4-3 lead in the eighth on Vic Power's two-run single, but pinch-hitter Don Mincher of the Twins started the ninth with a home run off Bob Lee.

Dressen Set To Join Team

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Tiger Manager Charlie Dressen arrived here Monday after recuperating in California from a heart attack he suffered during spring training.

Dressen said he will be a spectator until May 26. That's the day the Yankees come to town and Dressen said he would then resume his chores at the helm of the Tigers.

"I feel good. I've been walking three miles a day," he told newsmen.

He had nothing but praise for the team, interim manager Bob Swift, and Coach Frank Skaff. "Bob's done a darn fine job and I really appreciate it," he said. "And they tell me Skaff is one of the best third base coaches in the business, so I'm going to leave him right there."

And what about Willie Horton, the league's leading hitter? "Jimmy! That boy must be really something. And he's going to get even better."

Schaffer Area Baseball Men Slate Meeting

A meeting to reorganize the Schaffer area youth baseball program will be held Wednesday, May 19, at the Sacred Heart Church hall at 7:30 p.m.

All men of the area interested in assisting the program are invited to attend. Any boys in the area interested are asked to contact Fr. N. J. Arneith and provide their name, age and telephone number.

The program will get under way in June after school is out. The same program last year took in 120 boys from Cornell, Danforth, Flat Rock, Schaffer, Perronville, Bark River, Harris and Wilson.

Fr. Arneith asked that boys who have suits and equipment to turn them in as soon as possible.

Slow Pitch

There will be no workbee Wednesday as previously scheduled. The league will use the Ludington and Dock diamonds for the first two weeks. The practice schedule:

Tuesday — 6:45, Amvets-Little Mike's at Dock; Metropolitan at Ludington.

Thursday — 6:45, Jaycees at Ludington, Al's-Bosch at Dock.

Michigan Bows To Detroit 9

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan, a Big Ten baseball title contender, went outside the league Monday and absorbed a 12-10 defeat from the University of Detroit.

Shortstop Don Deputila, 3-for-5 for the game with four runs batted in, drove in the last two runs in a Detroit four-run rally in the eighth inning. The victory ran Detroit's record to 20-4 for the season. Les Panona, Michigan left-fielder, hit two triples.

Eskymos Defeat Flivvers, 3-0

KINGSFORD — Escanaba registered its second baseball victory of the season here Monday spilling the Kingsford Flivvers 3-0 behind Mike Gafner's three-hit pitching gem.

Coach Harold Johnson's ball club returns to action Thursday at Norway seeking revenge for its lone setback of the season.

Gafner tamed the Flivvers with eight strikeouts while granting only two walks. Kingsford's three hits were all singles and were spaced over three innings.

Escanaba reached Flivver ace Tom Johnson for five hits with Dave Kositzky and Jim Johnson stroking two each.

A pair of errors on ground balls hit by Larry Anderson and Rick Kuchenberg produced Escanaba's first run in the third inning. In the fourth, Paul Meunier blasted a leadoff homer over left field fence. Dave Kositzky singled to left, stole second and scored on Jim Johnson's single to center.

Air Officials Coming Today

Officials of the Department of Aeronautics are scheduled to be here today to confer with county officials on an omnibus navigational aid and lighting for the School County airport. A report on progress being made at the airport was presented at the meeting of the County Board of supervisors Monday.

The board asked the prosecutor to prepare a resolution to put a proposal for a medical care facility on the ballot later this year. Conferences will be held regarding Hill - Burton funds.

Mrs. Ludwig Hough was appointed to the county library board for five years.

A petition supporting a proposal to install a natural gas pipeline from Rapid River to Sault Ste. Marie was unanimously endorsed and a copy will be sent to Frank S. Hoholik, who is a promoter for the bringing of the fuel to the area.

A motion was made to have the hospital have patients needing aid fill out Kerr-Mills forms on admission.

A veteran burial allowance was approved.

Further research by the health department is scheduled for a milk products ordinance. Both Alger and Schoolcraft counties are scheduled to act on the matter.

A report was received that legislation on dog control is adequate and that more enforcement is needed. A dog census will be taken and a legal method arranged for control next year.

Students Hold Government Day

Thirty-seven students of Manistique High School observed Michigan Week government day Monday, with students filling various city and county offices.

Elections were held earlier in the school to fill the posts. George S. Baldwin, circuit judge, was the keynote speaker for the opening session and the noon luncheon sponsored by Manistique Pulp & Paper Co. He stressed freedom, man's quest for the truth which can make him free, and the innate belief that man is infinitely good, will improve himself if left free and solve problems in peaceable discussions.

Though political theory and law are theoretical their application and effects are quite real. More should concern themselves with them, he stressed, praising the student government program as a means to providing interest and encouragement for this.

E. E. Wuehle, school superintendent and Michigan Week chairman presented certificates to the participants during the luncheon meeting. J. L. Giovannini, was instructor in charge, with John Haindl of Cooks and Fred Lesica, county clerk assisting.

Politics, Judge Baldwin also stressed, is not an exact science. Many today look for exact or precise answers, such as that which science gives. Though this exactness is not available through political and legal processes, they are important and enable man to achieve.

The United States has been a shining example of freedom and man's quest for truth. We must fight degradation, depravity and injustice wherever it is found, though we must not "too much stick our nose in the other fellow's business," Baldwin explained.

Films relating to the struggle against enslavement by communism in various parts of the world were shown in the morning and afternoon sessions at the courthouse. The choice, they emphasized, is not between "Red or dead," but between freedom and slavery, bravery or cowardice, wisdom or ignorance.

City council and county board of supervisors meetings were held in conjunction with the student government program. Students spent part of the day in local government offices.

Democrat Cuts Irk Romney

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney criticized Democrats today for knocking $554,000 out of budget bills reported from committees.

The seven items, he said, are more important than some other things left in the budget.

Romney would not pinpoint the budget items he doesn't like but indicated he may exercise his item veto on some of them.

The appropriations he said should have been left in were:

—$125,000 for the work of a blue ribbon task force on water rights and pollution which would have earned 50-50 matching federal funds.

—$100,000 for a State Board of Education study of higher education needs throughout the state.

—$67,000 for night staffing of state parks to provide protection, especially in metropolitan areas.

—$100,000 for continuation of the two-year-old expenditure management task force, which Romney said has saved the state $5 million by promoting efficiency.

—$100,000 to study executive office reorganization.

—$42,000 to provide bicillin, a drug for treatment of rheumatic heart victims, to persons who cannot afford its purchase.

—$25,000 for a state cultural commission. This appropriation was cut to $5,000.

Romney declared that the legislature was short-sighted in failing to report out bills for Mackinac Bridge refinancing and reorganization of the state's military organization.

The governor said he was glad that the House "recognized the need to retain this state's fiscal integrity" by sending out bills for increased taxes along with a proposal which would add about $90 million to Romney's school aid recommendations.

Hoffa Promises Paper Workers Best Contract

NIAGARA, Wis. — James R. Hoffa, president of the International Teamsters Union, challenged one of the statements by Hoffa on the pension plan. Hoffa invited Poncio up to the speakers' microphone and a debate on several issues followed between the two.

During the late afternoon and while the meeting was going on the independent union was distributing handbills with quotations from an article on Hoffa in a recent edition of Reader's Digest magazine.

The handbill made reference to Hoffa's convictions, that he is still facing a jail term, that union funds have been used to fight his case, and that the Teamsters union had been allied with the underworld, crime and racket.

Hoffa's party of four arrived at the Ford Airport, Iron Mountain in a private plane about 5:15 p.m. Monday and left about 9 o'clock.

In the party was his son, James Hoffa, Jr., a law student at the University of Michigan, who was introduced to the audience at the meeting.

He stressed the size and the power of the Teamsters and the money behind it in his talk, designed to swing the employees from the present Independent Paper Mill Workers Union to the Teamsters Union in the election being held today.

Voting started at the end of a shift at 4:15 a.m. today and will continue until 6:30 tonight. The election is being conducted by the National Labor Relations Board.

A good-sized crowd, including a number of non-employees and high school students, attended last night's meeting.

Hoffa told his audience that "in order to talk with big business you have to be big business, the little fellow can't sit down with big business and get results."

He kept stressing that the Teamsters Union is the largest independent union in the world and has big money behind it that can get results.

During the question period for the audience Martin Poncio,

Escanaba Wins Praise From KI Day Guests

"We receive many fine letters of appreciation from the officers and their wives whom we entertain on the K. I. Sawyer Hospitality Day sponsored by the retail and business firms of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce," Walter Lewke, Chamber manager, said today.

"The letter we received this week from our guests who were here last Saturday was so explicit in its praise of Escanaba that we felt that its people should be informed about the impression made on our guests. They should take a personal pride in the appearance of our city and cordiality of our residents."

"We of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce are extremely pleased that through the combined efforts of all of the citizens of Escanaba, a letter of this nature comes to our office."

"The Chamber conducts a Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up Campaign every year, but it is only through a continual 12 month effort that we are able to maintain a reputation for being a fine, clean city, and the Chamber commends Escanaba and its citizens for their pride in presenting an attractive appearance to our visitors."

The letter received by the Chamber today from M/Sgt. and Mrs. Douglas Leary, T/Sgt. and Mrs. James O'Toole and T/Sgt. and Mrs. Richard Sheldon of K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, follows:

"We would like to take this opportunity to extend to you, the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, the Senior Citizens Committee of the Chamber, and the people of Escanaba our sincere appreciation for having had us as guests in your city Saturday, May 15.

"Having had the pleasure of visiting with you in your city and in particular with your senior citizens it was most apparent to all of us that it was through the past efforts of your senior citizens that you were able to take us on a tour of one of the finest cities in America today. We were extremely impressed with the cleanliness of Escanaba, its educational and recreational facilities, and most of all the friendly and progressive spirit of your citizens."

"In visiting your city as guests we left Escanaba with the feeling that here is a city wherein all the residents should feel a tremendous amount of pride and accomplishment. We intend to pass on to the people here at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base our reflections of our Escanaba visit."

"Thank you again for a very wonderful day that we will all long remember."

Escanaba Class Of 1955 Invites Calls On Reunion

Anyone who was a member at any time of the class which graduated from Escanaba High School in 1955 is invited to attend the class' reunion on July 3.

To help with planning, class members are asked to phone Pat Coyne at ST6-1497 if they are interested in the reunion.

The class, says Coyne, is particularly anxious to stir local interest in the get-together as many class members living in other places are coming for the reunion to renew acquaintance with class members still living in the Escanaba Area.
